Instructions for DR 0145

This form is used for two purposes:

- Tax information disclosure authorization. You authorize the department to disclose your confidential tax information to another person. This person will not receive original notices we send to you.
- Power of attorney for representation. You authorize another person to represent you and act on your behalf. The person must meet the qualifications listed here. Unless you specify differently, this person will have full power to do all things you might do, with as much binding effect, including, but not limited to: providing information; preparing, signing, executing, filing, and inspecting returns and reports; and executing statute of limitation extensions and closing agreements.

SSN: Social Security Number

CAN: Colorado Account Number

FEIN: Federal Employer Identification Number

This form is effective on the date signed. Authorization terminates when the department receives written revocation notice or a new form is executed (unless the space provided on the front is initialed indicating that prior forms are still valid). If this tax information designation and power of attorney for representation form is used for taxpayers on a joint return, both the primary taxpayer and spouse must sign this form.

Unless the appointed representative has a fiduciary relationship to the taxpayer (for example, personal representative, trustee, guardian, conservator), an original Notice of Deficiency will be mailed to the taxpayer as required by law. A copy will be provided to the appointed representative when requested.

For corporations, "taxpayer" as used on this form, must be the corporation that is subject to Colorado tax. List fiscal years by year end date.

An individual who prepares and either signs your tax return or who is not required to sign your tax return (by the instructions or by rule), may represent you during an audit of that return. That individual may not represent you for any other purpose unless they meet one of the qualifications listed above.

Generally, declarations for representation in cases appealed beyond the Department of Revenue must be in writing to the local jurisdiction district court. A person recognized by a district court will be recognized as your representative by the department.
