POWER OF ATTORNEY

By this agreement I,
APPOINT

my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name and for my sole use and benefit to do on my behalf anything that I can otherwise lawfully do by an attorney, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

To purchase, rent, sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, surrender, and in every way deal with real estate, lands, and premises and any interest that I own or acquire after the effective date of this power of attorney, and execute and deliver any documents pertaining to the real estate;

To take possession of, lease, let, manage, and improve any real estate or any interest in real estate which I own or acquire after the effective date of this power of attorney, and from time to time appoint any agent to assist in managing the same, using the same power and discretion as I have if personally present;

To sell or mortgage real estate and land, and any shares, stocks, bonds, mortgages, and other securities for money, either together or in parcels, for a price by public auction, private sale, or contract as my attorney considers to be reasonable and expedient;

To execute, deliver, and acknowledge any documents and generally to deal with goods and other property and to transact all business required as my attorney sees fit, for any of the purposes mentioned here;

To deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, and coupons and to vote those that have voting rights;

To negotiate with, deposit with, or transfer to any bank, any money and other negotiable notes and to endorse them on my behalf; and also to sign or endorse my name on any cheque, draft, or order for the payment of money, or to any bill of exchange or promissory note in which I have an interest; and to transact any business with the banks that may be necessary. Any bank may continue to deal with my attorney under this power until the manager or acting manager of the branch of the bank at which the account is kept receives written notice of revocation of this power of attorney. Until such notice has been given, the acts of the attorney with the bank will be binding on me;

To demand and receive from anyone all debts, in any form, which are or will be due to me

To execute receipts and discharges of any debts owing to me when the debts have been paid;

If any person does not render a full account of the debt owing, to compel that person to do so, using all proceedings available under the law as my attorney thinks fit;

To examine and settle any account pending between me and any person;

And also for me and in my name, to enter into any agreement with any person to whom I am indebted, satisfying the debt; and generally to act as I myself could do if personally present;

To accept partial payment in satisfaction for the payment of the whole of any debt payable to me or to grant an extension of time for the payment or otherwise to act as my attorney believes most expedient;

If any dispute arises concerning any of the matters in this power of attorney, to take the dispute to arbitration, as my attorney thinks fit, and to sign any documents for this purpose;

And also to invest or deal with any money which may be received as my attorney sees fit and in particular to buy real estate, stocks, and bonds;

And to have access to deposit and remove any documents or articles which may be in any safety deposit box I have, in any institution;
