

Change Custody and Access

Court of Queen's Bench

Application to Change Custody and Access

Government of Alberta ■
Justice and Attorney General

Instructions

Changing Custody

Before you Begin:

- You must have a divorce file in the Court of Queen's Bench to use this form. If you do not, talk to us about how to start.
- See our booklet, "Making a Court Application in the Court of Queen's Bench (With an Application Form)" for more information about how to prepare, file and serve court forms and how to present your case in court.

Gather up the documents you will need to prove your case

- You will need a copy of the Order that you want to change.
- Think about which documents will help your case. Some of these might be relevant:
 - School report cards
 - Letters from the child's doctor, teacher or counsellor
 - Copies of e mails showing attempts to organize access
 - Your work schedule, if access must be scheduled around that
 - The children's extracurricular activity schedule

Fill in the Application form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the "Making a Court Application" booklet.

Fill in the Affidavit form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the "Making a Court Application" booklet.
- This form has been prepared with the information that the court is likely to want to see. You can, if you wish, change the content of the form to set out the information in a way that you think is best.
- All of the documents that you want the judge to see must be written about in the Affidavit and attached as exhibits to the Affidavit.

After the other party has been served, fill in the Affidavit of Service form

- Follow the instructions on the form and in the "Making a Court Application" booklet.
