Required Account Information

Important: The name of the person who will receive the IMRF benefit payments must be on this account

IMRF needs you to provide specific account information on the reverse side of this form in order to set up Direct Deposit:

- Name of your financial institution
- Phone number of the branch you use
- Address of the branch you use
- Your account number
- Your financial institution's routing number
- Type of account

A routing number is a nine-digit number, and is a completely separate number from your account number.

If you have a savings or brokerage account, you should call the financial institution where you have your account to obtain the correct routing number.

If you have a checking account, see the sample below for how to get your account number and the correct routing number from your blank checks. (Note: If you have temporary checks, call the financial institution where you have your account to obtain the correct routing number.)
