GUARDIANSHIP OF A MINOR CHILD Q AND A

- Q. Someone has left a minor child (under age 18) with me, has not returned, and I am caring for this child. What should I do to protect myself and this child?
- A. If you know where the parents are, you can ask for them to grant you a Power of Attorney (POA). This is a document that will give you the power to provide for the care of the child. A POA will be good for up to 6 months. The POA should be typed or hand written in ink and should be signed and dated by the parents. If the parents to not want to give you a POA or you cannot find the parents then you may want to contact the Ottawa County Probate Court for information about obtaining guardianship (616-786-4110).
- Q. Are there different types of guardians? What types?
- A. The Court can appoint a temporary, full or limited guardian.

Temporary guardianship is granted due to an emergency pending a hearing to appoint a full guardian. This is done on a case by case basis. You may contact the Probate Court to determine if this is appropriate for your case.

A full guardian is a person who cares for a child in place of the parent. The child must be living with the proposed guardian at the time the petition is filed. This type of guardianship can continue up until the child turns 18, but can also be reviewed, modified or terminated by filing a petition to modify or terminate guardianship by the parents, guardians or other interested parties of the child.

Limited guardianship is a guardianship that is established at the request of the custodial parent and includes a limited guardianship placement plan that outlines the efforts that the parent(s) must make before attempting to dissolve the guardianship. The limited guardianship is a temporary suspension of parental rights. If the parents do not complete the requirements of the placement plan the guardians may ask for a termination of parental rights and adoption of the child. Therefore, the parents should be very committed to completing the steps of the placement plan.

- Q. What are some of the issues I should consider before trying to obtain guardianship?
- A. While guardianships are meant to be temporary, it is entirely possible that you could be taking care of the child until age18. Look carefully at your options and make sure you are willing and able to care for the child on a full time basis. If you think you may need assistance in caring for the child medically or financially you should contact your local Department of Human Services to inquire about assistance that may be available to you.

Q. What criteria does the Probate Court utilize in deciding who should be a guardian for a minor?

A. The Court is interested in establishing that the candidate does not have a serious criminal record. The Court will want to satisfy itself that the candidate generally understands the responsibilities to be imposed upon them as guardian and that they are committed to looking out for the minor's best interests and well being.

Q. How do I get the Probate Court to appoint me the guardian of a child?

A. You must file a Petition to Appoint Guardian of a Minor; packets of forms are available at the Probate Court (12120 Fillmore St., West Olive MI 49460) as well as the LSHC (Legal Self Help Center, 414 Washington, Grand Haven MI 49417) or can be completed and printed from the following websites; www.miottawa.org, http://courts.michigan.gov/scao/courtforms/index.htm
There is a fee of $150.00 to file per petition (per child). Contact the Court directly with any procedural (non-legal) questions you may have.

Q. What do I do once the forms are completed?

A. You will file all original paperwork with the Probate Court. Please refer to the cover page of the packet of forms you received from the Court or visit our website www.miottawa.org for a copy of the procedural instructions for filing for guardianship of a minor.

Q. What should I expect at my Court hearing?

A. Probate Court hearings are typically scheduled on Mondays and can be scheduled for anytime between 8 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. You should arrive to the Probate Court on time, dressed neatly, and with any and all documents and/or persons you wish to present to the Court. Check in with the clerk at the Probate Court window to let them know that you are present and ready for your hearing. The clerk will then direct you to the appropriate Courtroom. Unless otherwise directed by the Judge, after your hearing you should quietly exit the Courtroom and wait in the lobby while your paperwork is being processed. Once your copies of the documents are prepared they will be presented to you in the lobby by staff.
